

Adoption and Adoption Subsidy

Purpose

Adoption subsidy is a financial support provided to families who adopt special needs children. The funds assist families with the cost of raising a child, and costs associated with the needs of the child.

Who Is Helped

When courts terminate the parental rights of children who have been abused or neglected, the DHS strives to find permanent adoptive families as quickly as possible.

- Subsidies are paid until the child reaches age 18, or until age 21 if there is a disability.
- Subsidies are available if:
 - The child has a special need (including a diagnosed physical, mental or emotional disability), is older, is a member of a sibling group of three or more children, or is at risk of developing a diagnosed condition; and
 - The state is unable to place the child for adoption without the subsidy; and
 - The child was in the guardianship of DHS or a licensed child-placing agency prior to adoption.

The majority of children adopted through DHS are under age 6 and Caucasian.

- On July 1, 2014, 9,987 children were eligible for adoption subsidy.
 - The adoptive parents of 9,512 children received an adoption subsidy payment.
 - 475 children have subsidy agreements in which no payments are currently paid but may be in the future.

- 12 to 15 (29%) ■ 16 to 21 (19%)

Number of Adoptions per Year

- ✓ The adoptive family's income cannot be considered when negotiating subsidy supports.
- ✓ Citizenship or qualified non-citizen status is an eligibility requirement to claim federal funds.
- ✓ Of all children placed for adoption through DHS, about 95 percent either receive adoption subsidy or are eligible for subsidy.

Services

Adoption subsidy provides a monthly payment to parents of eligible children. Families may also receive:

- Up to $500 per child to pay legal fees to finalize the adoption.
- Supplies and equipment to meet a child's needs.
- Outpatient therapy for providers not paid through Medicaid.
- Additional insurance premium costs when adding a child to private insurance.
- Up to $500 per child when adopting a sibling group of three or more.

Families who receive adoption subsidy are eligible for post-adoption support services provided through a contract.

Rate of subsidy in flux:

- A 1.5 percent rate increase was appropriated for SFY13 (effective 7/1/12).
- A 5 percent rate increase was appropriated for SFY14 (effective 7/1/13).
- No rate increase was appropriated for SFY15.

SFY14 average per diem subsidy was $21.12.

Number of Children for Whom Adoption Payments Are Made*

*Numbers are rising because new cases exceed the number of cases in which subsidies end.

Total Expenditure

- ✓ Children who are eligible for adoption subsidy are categorically eligible for Medicaid.
- ✓ Adoption subsidy rates are negotiated with families, but the rate cannot exceed the rate the child received or would have received in foster care.
- ✓ Adoption subsidy rates and foster care rates are designed to be nearly the same, thus eliminating a disincentive by foster parents to adopt.
